Being a handmaiden to the Lord, her service isn't limited to any area but can be found where a need exist. An astute teacher, prayer warrior and intercessor, this yielded vessel is destined for greatness and full of purpose. In addition to her many gifts, Lady Davis is a worshipper who longs to be in the presence of the King. God has anointed her to usher people beyond the pain of life's situations, and into His presence where they can receive total healing: spirit, soul and body. Making melody before the Lord is her pleasure; for in His presence is fullness of joy!

Presently leading many efforts at Wholeness in Christ Fellowship, Youth Ministry continues to be her passion and she maintains a special love for Women's Ministry. She desires to see women and the youth of this day embrace who they are in God and stand with a boldness to say, "I am who my Father says I am!" Lady Davis' favorite scripture is Isaiah 43:18-19: "Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert."
